

I strongly support satellite radio, since I live in a medium size town and the radio stations don't have the type of music I like. And, I don't see why the NAB should interfere with the satellite radio, since we the customers pay out of their own pocket for this service. Just like the satellite dish on tv's. I want to be heard as a citizens of the U.S.